

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry documentary at this time, just days before the election, is a serious threat to the democratic process.

Sinclair has an obligation to the people of this good country to remain impartial. This is My Right to demand this of them for their free use of the public airwaves. It is the Federal Law that they are obligated to serve the public interest. Sinclair's decision show clearly the dangers we face when only a few large companies own all the major broadcasting companies. When large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line of the company and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
